1 Right to preventive measures
Every individual has the right to a proper service in order to prevent illness.

2 Right of access
Every individual has the right of access to the health services that his or her health needs require. The health services must guarantee equal access to everyone, without discriminating on the basis of financial resources, place of residence, kind of illness or time of access to services.

3 Right to information
Every individual has the right to access to all information regarding his or her state of health, the health services and how to use them, and all that scientific research and technological innovation make available.

4 Right to consent
Every individual has the right of access to all information that might enable him or her to actively participate in the decisions regarding his or her health; this information is a prerequisite for any procedure and treatment, including the participation in scientific research.

5 Right to free choice
Each individual has the right to freely choose from among different treatment procedures and providers on the basis of adequate information.
